

73 KOLSCH

THE STORY

After pro football star Joe Thomas retired, GLBC found the perfect opportunity to honor a local beer-loving legend with a tasty tribute. Thomas visited GLBC and assisted our brewers in designing and brewing 73 Kolsch's pilot batch, rolling up his sleeves to add hops to the boil and rake out spent grain. We'd expect nothing less from our hardworking hometown hero.

Think you've earned this beer? Try playing 10,363 consecutive snaps. To thank Joe Thomas for his dedication to Cleveland (on and off the gridiron) we huddled with the man himself to brew this crisp, refreshing, tailgate worthy ale.
